What if you were sent back and forth between multiple restaurants for each item you ordered?

Then why send our users back and forth?!?

Real-Estate software industry has done an excellent job on building tools to manage, integrate and visualize the data

User expectations, however, are changing

Demand To Access More

- Users are demanding access to more types of data than ever before
- Business users are seeking custom solutions to fit their needs

RESO has already provided standards for defining and distributing data

Modular Designs

Bring the power of modular development to the real-estate software industry

Where to Start?

Community Framework

Build or adopt an open source framework to support modular development

ACHIEVE

Seamless Integration

Benefits

- Standardize Quality
- Accelerated Delivery
- Reduced Costs

Looking Beyond Integrated Solutions

Self Service Business Intelligence

- Deliver intelligence to their software of choice
- Empower them with the right data, at the right time
- Optimize business process and operations

Demo

Self Service Business Intelligence

Self Service BI application
